

We want to advocate for ideas or actions we feel passionate about. Accomplishing this in an assertive manner and not overdoing it can be a challenge. We will discuss and practice assertive statements and responses, both in our daily lives and in formal advocacy.